

Boccia Coach Development Model

Entry

Active Awareness

Learn fundamental movements through the hard work of play

No formal competitions

Learn to Train Learn to play boccia

Intraclub competitions and local fun tournaments

Train to Train

Fun with a purpose

Interclub tournaments, League play, regional competitions, open invitational tournaments, provincial championships

Train to Compete

Take it to the next level

Canadian Boccia Championships

Learn to Win

Qualify for the national team

International invitationals

Train to Win

Win at international competitions

Americas Championships, World Championships, World Cup, Parapanamerican Games, Paralympic Games

Active for Life

Stay active, stay healthy, stay independent

Local, regional, provincial tournaments

Community Initiation Coach

NCCP course: Learn to Coach Boccia

- No previous experience or prerequisites required
- Facilitates fun introductory programs teaching fundamental skills (i.e. Ready to Play) or recreational clubs
- In L2T, begins working on boccia techniques and preparing athletes for their first competition experience

Approved: October 2002

Introduction to Competition Coach

NCCP course:

- Introduction to Competition Pre-requisite: Multi Sport Module
- Part A
- In L2T, begins working on boccia techniques and preparing athletes for their first competition experience
- In T2T coaches players to success in regional and provincial play

- Coaches club and provincial players to success at provincial and national championships
- In L2W, prepares espoir athletes for participation in international invitational competitions

Competition High Performance Coach

national players to success at national and international levels of play

Coaches club, provincial and

Legend

Indicates most common entry points into participation in boccia

Two way arrow reflects typical movement of participants between streams and contexts in boccia experience

Entry